

① Write next to each corresponding letter whether the uniform was worn in 1914 or 1918. What differences do you see?

A: Belgian soldier 1914

D: Belgian soldier 1918

B: German soldier 1914

E: German soldier 1918

C: French soldier 1914

F: French soldier 1918

Why were these uniforms adapted during the war? Write down what differences you notice:

Many soldiers in 1914 are not all that well camouflaged, like the French soldier with red pants. An adaption was the helmet, which protected better against the many explosions and shelling. The uniforms were adapted to the trench warfare.

② What is the name of this weapon?

The tank.

③ Indicate in this word search puzzle what food was canned during the First World War. Can you find all eight of them?

T	Y	V	C	A	L	I	S	K	V
A	Z	S	O	U	P	M	A	U	Z
U	T	E	A	S	M	Q	R	C	W
E	L	W	T	J	I	S	D	M	J
G	U	L	K	A	L	B	I	V	X
M	M	F	J	R	K	A	N	O	Z
H	S	H	A	M	B	O	E	E	N
W	E	F	M	T	L	A	S	T	Y
C	N	N	W	B	E	A	N	S	Q
K	L	Z	M	P	R	O	V	C	A

4 What is still made in rubber today? And what is still made in leather?

Rubber: rubber boots, car tires, erasers, shoe soles, ...

Leather: sofas, car seats, clothing (jackets, trousers, boots, bags),...

5 Take a good look at the drawing. It is from book you saw. What do you think the doctor is doing?

- ☐ He's going to draw.
- ☐ He's checking something on his tablet.
- ☒ He takes X-rays.
- ☐ He makes a fingerprint.

6 Complete the sentences Maurice says and write next to the letter of each button from which country it comes.

In Germany, the end crowns the work.

The Americans have an eagle's nest.

In France, the flame is not far from the smoke.

And what remains is Great Britain!

A: France B: Germany C: United Kingdom D: United States

7 Indicate where in this deep dugout one or more pump should be located.

8 If you were a soldier in a deep dugout and only kept one personal object, what would it be?

(Free interpretation)

9 Write down what taste the colour of these candies suggests.

A: Orange

B: Lemon

C: Strawberry

D: Raspberry

E: Apple

10 Many soldiers who fought in the Battle of Passchendaele also came from these countries. Do you recognize them? Write down which countries were involved.

The United States (fought under the Canadian flag), France (participated as a country on the left flank), Denmark and Poland (then partly German territory) and South Africa (under a Scottish unit).

11 Weigh your school bag at home! How many does it weigh? How can you make them lighter?

x kg. I don't need this at school: (Free interpretation)

12 Tick the box under the statue that was erected for Francis Pegahmagabow.

☐☐☒

13 Maurice found this Morse message from the First World War in grandpa's museum.
Decipher the text!

TELEPHONE_BROKE_STOP_LOTS_OF_SHELLING_STOP_HAVE_SENT_CARRIER_

PIGEON_STOP

What other means of communication from the First World War are mentioned in the message?

Telephone, pigeon carrier.

14 This British soldier has a mirror attached to his rifle. What contemporary object does it remind you of? Tip: it has something to do with a smartphone.

A selfie stick..

15 Connect the matching object with each fallen soldier.

16 Tick the box of the photo that William Seabrook carried with him.

☐☐☒

17 How would you rebuild your village? Take a sheet of paper and draw your new village. Think about what should be included: a church, school, good roads and perhaps a war memorial? (Free interpretation)

18 Both rich and poor returned. Can you see who had more or less money to build? Connect each pile of coins (A, B and C) with the right emergency house (1, 2 and 3).

A = number 2

B = number 1

C = number 3

19 Write next to each letter which flower commemorates British, German, French or Belgian soldiers.

A: Belgian

B: British

C: /

D: German

E: French

Which one does not fit in the list?

C: the rose

20 Each country chose to commemorate their fallen with its own type of gravestone. Which countries would these be?

A: Belgium

B: Germany

C: France

D: United Kingdom